Foreword

The search for a key to unlock a new trade route to India led to the discovery of America.

Like these seafaring explorers high school students are constantly searching for the key that will unlock the door to knowledge, popularity, and success in scholarship, athletics, or leadership.

The student himself is the master key, not his teachers, family, or friends. If he utilizes all of his God-given gifts—his own talents, abilities, and determination —he can successfully unlock the doors for a bright and productive future.

Through the use of both written and pictorial record, the MIZPAH shows students unlocking the first of these doors to a successful future.

MR. RAY MILLS, JR., Superintendent of Schools

The third year of the administration of Ray Mills, Jr., brought the passage of the bond issue for a new high school after several defeats. Even though the new high school will not be ready for occupancy until September, 1962, many departments are being improved in the present building. This includes the creation of a new biology lab, up-to-date electronic equipment in the French department, and new coordinator desks for business education classes.

Supt. Mills graduated from a two-year training course in education at Alfred Holbrook College in 1939, received his B.S. degree from Wilmington College and his M.A. from Miami University. At present, he is working on a six-year education program at Miami.

our education

D. C. Nicholson, High School Principal, received his A.B. and M.E. degrees from Ohio University.

He is currently enjoying his twenty-first year of association with the local high school—twelve years as a teacher and nine years as an administrator.

Efficiency reigns supreme in his office and much of the smooth operation of the school plant can be attributed to this factor.

MRS. HARRIETTE McNEMAR
Director of Guidance and Testing

Mrs. Harriette McNemar first began her duties at our school in 1956 as the instructor in business education. She taught in the department full time for two years and initiated a part-time guidance program in 1958. During the past three years, her duties have increased so tremendously that she is now employed for guidance and testing only.

Because of her intensive interest in their walfare and her constant urging toward higher goals, many of our students have gained greater success.

Mrs. McNemar received her B.A. at Miami and the M.A. in Guidance at Ohio State University.

Being selected to attend Buckeye State is one of the highest honors that can befall a high school student.

Because delegates are selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and citizenship qualities, it is only fitting that those selected this year should take their places at the close of the "Honors" section.

Hearts beat faster

At the sound of her whistle, the drums began the tempo for the Indian Marching Band to parade the field. Sharon Courtney, who so capably has led the musicians for three years, lacks none of the essential qualities—appearance, poise, personality, and showmanship—which a drum majorette must possess.

Typical Teens are selected

Holly Long and Bill Heimlich

Torrey Griffith, green-eyed strawberry blonde candidate of the WAR WHOOP staff, and Denny Shipman, bedimpled FFA president with the infectious grin, were selected as Mount Gilead's "Typical Teens" of 1962.

In the initial selection of typical students at MGHS, eighteen candidates were nominated by various organizations and were presented at assembly and at the MIZPAH dance.

Above—Holly Long, gracious and charming candidate of the Future Nurses, and Bill Heimlich, slender Hi-Y president, were chosen as the second runners-up.

Right—Choir candidate, blonde brown-eyed Mary Ellen Nixon, and senior athlete, Marv Gillson, VAC representative, were named as first runners-up.

All "Teens" participate in many extracurricular activities, are good students and school citizens, thus meriting their titles.

Autumn Beauties Royally Reign

Miss Torrey Griffith

The breathless beauty and charming manner of pert, blonde cheerleader, Mary Ellen Nixon are very obvious reasons why she was selected by members of the football squad as Mount Gilead High School's 1961 Homecoming Queen.

Dancing brown eyes, friendliness to all, school citizenship, and honors in other fields justify the selection of this comely lass. She is well chosen.

Selected to attend the reigning beauty were Torrey Griffith, gracious, retiring redhead, and Carol Bader, dark-haired, brown-eyed lovely.

Crowning ceremonies took place preceding a victorious game with Marion Catholic. The Queen and her court also took their places of honor at the Homecoming Dance.

After School Activities

Senior stage crew members get a breather during the two-night run of the play.

Cheerleaders vigorously lead the team followers in a cheer during the game with Prospect.

The Cameraman Was There

Glenna Staley gets a tip about her lesson from Mr. Webb during shorthand class. Other class members are Bonnie Dilsaver, Jean and Judy Ault, Phyllis Fuller, and Carol Lee.

Right—Pat Popp as a lonely and frightened woman who thinks she is about to be murdered in the production, "Sorry, Wrong Number."

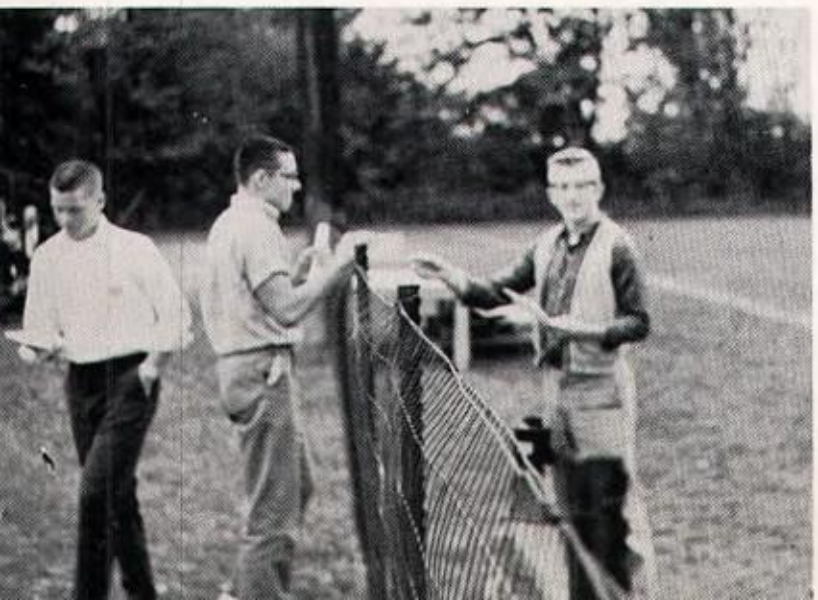
Self-sustaining, unofficial club of "Bigarty" members present awards to outstanding athletes as Ron Kemnitzer is doing below to Ron Nixon and Jerry Ashbrook.



Right—More horseplay than stage play work goes on as John Wagner and Ken Staley can't get in the mood to get that stage scenery up for the senior play.

Smile, you're

Left—Seniors have mixed emotions during the practice for Commencement as evidenced by expressions of Sharon Courtney, Bonnie Jackson, Martha Hildebrand, Judy Logan, and Lee Hunt.

Below—Camera Capers of John Wagner and Mr. Cubberly. The question is, Max Heimlich wishes he were inside that beach towel the way Pam Geyer is passing out affection. Barb Richardson also seems to be enjoying herself.

Below—Kendra Hardy and Sharon Courtney make minor repairs to Spring Concert decorations.

Below—Now really, Pat Geyer, you'll scare the little kids with an expression like that! It does look like a pretty big needle, though.

on "Candid Camera"

Right—Diana Baughman says, "Nyaaaah, we sounded horrible." Karen Osborn acts pleased, but Pat Blose isn't too sure how the performance went.

Below—More seniors who can't quite force themselves to get that scenery up are Ron Bader, Ron Kemnitzer, and Joe Lancaster.

The Final Copy -

Even though the school year of 1961-62 is ended, we hope this forty-seventh edition of the MIZPAH will link your past with many fond memories. We have attempted to capture and record the varied activities of your high school days through pictures and articles.

At this time, I would like to express my appreciation to Mr. Marvin Webb, our advisor, the Cubberly Studios, The Sentinel, Taylor Publishing Company, faculty members, and area merchants who have helped to make this edition possible through their patronage. Also, I should like to recognize my very reliable Assistant Editor—Mary Ellen Nixon, Patricia Popp—Business Manager, Karen Osborn, Advertising Manager, Candy Finley and John Wagner—Photographers, and all the other members of the staff.

Most important, however, my sincerest thanks are extended to YOU, the subscriber. I trust that this volume will become one of your most-prized possessions; and, if in future years while turning these pages, you should recall the many smiles, sorrows, and dreams of the past year, then we shall be content to know that we have attained our goal. Your satisfaction with this volume is our compensation. With this thought, I proudly present you with this 1962 MIZPAH, the key to a wonderful year at Mount Gilead High.
